

There's going to be another HVC party! And you are welcome!

Yes, there is! And everyone is invited including all those associated with Headley Voluntary Care in whatever capacity, and all those who have no idea who we are or what we do, but want to come to the party anyway; everyone is welcome. So put on your summer casual wear, and come to the garden party of the year.

The date is Thursday 11 July in the garden of Phyl and Robin Smeeton, the Old Rectory, High Street, Headley GU35 8PW, commencing at 7.00pm.
We thank them for their kind generosity.

So what will be there to be seen and done? First of all, lots of people to talk to. Some you will know, others you won't. But you will find, for some strange reason only found at Headley Voluntary Care events, that every person is a delight to converse with, and all are most interested in what you have to say.

Secondly there will be copious quantities of food and drink, and you will be able to fill up your plate many times over. There will be canapés to start with and then a delicious barbecue consisting mainly of gorgeous hot dogs and sublime fried onions; our chef de maison will be the irrepressible Paul Heath who will add a sauce of jovial banter to make your meal taste even more scrumptious.

Of course, the most obvious source of delight from the evening will be the beauty of the Smeeton garden, a blend of flowers and shrubs, bushes and trees, and a manicured lawn. The sun will be shining, the bees will be buzzing and the birds will be singing. What better way to enjoy a typical English Summer evening!
No! It won't rain! Don't worry!

Tickets are £5.00 each, only £2.00 for children, and can be purchased from any committee member or at the Thursday morning coffee meetings. But, even if you have not bought a ticket in advance, you can pay at the door. The first drink is free; we just ask for donations if you want to refill your glass. All else is free, though you will be persuaded gently to buy raffle tickets whose draw will provide delightful prizes for the lucky winners.

So please buy your tickets now, and invite your family, friends, neighbours, even people you have not met before. The more the merrier and the more income we shall make for Headley Voluntary Care, whose sole purpose is to look after people in need.
